

S.No.	Borough	FIPS code	Density	Population	Area	Borough seat	Class	Est.	Origin	Etymology
1	Aleutians East Borough	013	0.49	3398	6,985 sq mi (18,091 km)	Sand Point	Second	1987	-	Its location in the east Aleutian Islands, which are themselves of uncertain linguistic origin; possibly derived from Chukchi word
2	Anchorage	020	168.79	288121	1,707 sq mi (4,421 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	Unified Home Rule	1964/1975	Anchorage Borough formed in 1964, merged with city in 1975 to form unified city-borough	Derived from the presence of a safe place to anchor and unload supplies for construction of the Alaska Railroad circa 1913, thereby creating a community.
3	Bristol Bay Borough	060	1.74	838	482 sq mi (1,248 km)	Naknek	Second	1962	-	Named in 1778 by Capt. James Cook for George Digby, 2nd Earl of Bristol.
4	Denali Borough	068	0.13	1593	12,641 sq mi (32,740 km)	Healy	Home Rule	1990	-	From Denali, the tallest North American mountain, which means "great one" in the
5	Fairbanks North Star Borough	090	13.03	95593	7,335 sq mi (18,998 km)	Fairbanks	Second	1964	-	Named for its borough seat of Fairbanks, named in turn for Charles Fairbanks (1852 - 1918), U.S. Senator from Indiana and vice president under Theodore Roosevelt, and
6	Haines Borough	100	0.88	2071	2,343 sq mi (6,068 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	Home Rule	1968 (Consolidated 2002)	-	After Haines, which was itself named for Mrs. F.E. Haines, the key fundraiser for the construction of a Presbyterian mission in
7	Juneau	110	11.82	31973	2,704 sq mi (7,003 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	Unified Home Rule	1970	The cities of Juneau and Douglas merged with the surrounding borough to form the municipality	Joseph "Joe" Juneau, prospector and co-founder of the city.
8	Kenai Peninsula Borough	122	3.73	59767	16,017 sq mi (41,484 km)	Soldotna	Second	1964	-	The Kenai Peninsula, whose name may be derived from Kenayskaya, the Russian name
9	Ketchikan Gateway Borough	130	2.83	13754	4,857 sq mi (12,580 km)	Ketchikan	Second	1963	-	The borough seat of Ketchikan and the borough's gateway location on the Alaska-
10	Kodiak Island Borough	150	1.91	12787	6,689 sq mi (17,324 km)	Kodiak	Second	1963	-	Named after Kodiak Island, which may itself be named for the Koniag people
11	Lake and Peninsula Borough	164	0.06	1416	23,832 sq mi (61,725 km)	King Salmon	Home Rule	1989	-	The borough's many large lakes, and the Alaska Peninsula
12	Matanuska-Susitna Borough	170	4.48	110686	24,707 sq mi (63,991 km)	Palmer	Second	1964	-	Named for the valley that the Matanuska and Susitna Rivers form.
13	North Slope Borough	185	0.12	10972	88,824 sq mi (230,053 km)	Utqiag̃vik	Home Rule	1972	-	The Alaska North Slope along the Brooks Range.
14	Northwest Arctic Borough	188	0.21	7560	35,663 sq mi (92,367 km)	Kotzebue	Home Rule	1986	In 1986, residents of Kotzebue and 10 other area villages voted to form the Northwest Arctic Borough (with boundaries coincident with those of NANA), to be economically based on taxing the Red Dog mine, then under	Its geographic location and position above the Arctic Circle.
15	Petersburg Borough	195	1.16	3356	2,901 sq mi (7,514 km)	Petersburg	Home Rule	2013	Incorporated after voters approved borough formation in December 2012.	Named for Norwegian immigrant Peter Buschmann, founder of the former city of Petersburg.

16	Sitka	220	2.93	8407	2,870 sq mi (7,433 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	Unified Home Rule	1971	-	Derived from Tlingit word Shee At'iká, meaning "People on the outside of Shee
17	Skagway	230	2.61	1132	434 sq mi (1,124 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	First	2007	-	Derived from Tlingit word Shgagwèi, meaning "a windy place with white caps on
18	Unorganized Borough	-	0.24	76490	319,852 sq mi (828,413 km)	-	-	1961	The Borough Act of 1961 created The Unorganized Borough including all of Alaska not within a Unified, Home rule, First class or Second class	A legal entity in Alaska, covering those parts of Alaska not within an incorporated borough; it is directly administered by the State of Alaska.
19	Wrangell	275	0.8	2055	2,556 sq mi (6,620 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	Unified Home Rule	2008	formerly part of Wrangell- Petersburg Census Area	Ferdinand von Wrangel, Russian administrator of Alaska, 1840-49.
20	Yakutat	282	0.09	704	7,623 sq mi (19,743 km)	(Consolidated city-borough)	Home Rule	1992	-	Yakutat Bay and the Yakutat Alaska Native people

<https://www.downloadexcelfiles.com/>